

Kyrie

DANIEL LUKAS

your goodness found me lost and so alone your truth it shattered me, it broke my bones you reached down and in you make me new i was wrong inside you make me true so great are you Mercy so great, you never fail

Christ have Lord have Christ have Mercy on us your faithful promises bring me through your honest words are good they tell the truth you pulled me out and you brought me close i was cold and you brought me warmth
