

Lord, Let Your Glory Fall

Matt Redman

D Dmaj7 G
Lord let your glory fall,
D/F# G
As on that ancient day.
Bm D/F# G
Songs of enduring love,
Em G D
And then your glory came.
D Dmaj7 G
And as a sign to you,
D/F# G
That we would love the same,
Bm D/F# G
Our hearts will sing that song,
Em G D
God, let your glory come.

D D
You are good, You are good,
G
And your love endures.
D D
You are good, You are good,
G
And your love endures.
Bm D/F#
You are good, You are good,
G D
And your love endures today.

D G
Voices in unison,
D/F# G
Giving you thanks and praise,
Bm D/F# G
Joined by the instruments,
Em G D
And then your glory came.
D G
Your presence like a cloud,
D/F# G
Upon that ancient day,
Bm D/F# G
The priests were over--whelmed,
Em G D
Because your glory came.

D G
A sacrifice was made,
D/F# G
And then your fire came,
Bm D/F# G
They knelt upon the ground,
Em G D
And with one voice they praised.
