

Tambourines

Ryan Lott

verse1:       C#m           G#m7
you turn to those who cry for you
          C#m                           G#m7
who have no one else they can trust
          C#m           G#m7
you lift up all who are weighed down and drowning
          C#m           G#m7           F#7<sup>+4</sup>   F#7<sup>+4</sup>
who call out to you to be rescued
C#m       G#m7       C#m   G#m7 da.....da.....da.....da da da..... (First Time) chorus:           A<sup>+9</sup>                   Bsus

and the poor find wealth in you
                                  C#m   F#7<sup>+4</sup>   A<sup>+9</sup>
the broken ones find healing in your touch
          A<sup>+9</sup>                           Bsus
of all who are humble, who cry for your mercy
C#m       F#           F#m
no one is ever left in need
          A<sup>+9</sup>                           Bsus
and the chains of the captives, broken by your strength, C#m                           B<sup>+4</sup>/D#   E           E
resound in the streets to your praise like tambourines C#m       G#m7       C#m   G#m7   F#7<sup>+4</sup>   F#7<sup>+4</sup> da.....da.....da.....da da da..... (2x)

verse1:       C#m           G#m7
when i'm worn from my running
          C#m                           G#m7
and wasting what i have on sin
          C#m           G#m7
i hear your voice and i long for your mercy
          C#m           G#m7           F#7<sup>+4</sup>   F#7<sup>+4</sup>
to run out to meet me with.....open arms